

C8686

2.C64

Copy 1

The Criminal Justice Hall of Fame

Visit the South Carolina Criminal Justice Hall of Fame for an interesting glimpse at law enforcement.

The Criminal Justice Hall of Fame features exhibits on historical and contemporary aspects of law enforcement. The Melvin Purvis Exhibit focuses on a historic era in law enforcement. Part of Purvis' vast gun collection is on display, including a rifle which belonged to John Dillinger. Other memorabilia from the era can also be viewed.

Antique moonshine stills, and equipment, a police call box, and an old jail cell also illustrate the historical aspects of law enforcement in South Carolina.

The Hall of Fame offers a series of public safety programs for grades K - 5th. Each program features a puppet show, movie, and discussion. A tour of the museum follows. Presentations available by grade are:

Kindergarten:
Stranger Danger
or Traffic Safety

First:
Traffic Safety

Second and Third:
Bicycle Safety or Latchkey Children

Fourth:
Vandalism or Latchkey Children

Fifth:
Substance Abuse

On a limited basis, film presentations at your school on Child Molestation/Stranger Danger are available for grades K - 5th.

The Criminal Justice Hall of Fame
5400 Broad River Road
Columbia, SC 29210
(803) 737-8600
Closed State Holidays

SOUTH CAROLINA STATE LIBRARY

Free admission, handicap access, ample parking.

Guided tours must be scheduled in advance.